THE CITY HARVEST CHURCH COURT DECISION

21 October 2015

The National Council of Churches is saddened to learn of the conviction of Pastor Kong Hee, Pastor Tan Ye Peng, Mr John Lam Leng Hung, Ms Sharon Tan, Ms Serina Wee, and Mr Chew Eng Han who are related to the City Harvest Church for criminal breach of trust and falsification of accounts of the said church.

It is our hope and prayer that good will come out of this whole episode, especially as a reminder to pay greater attention on church governance in the matter of management of funds.

We ask for the Christian community to pray for CHC as its members reflect on the future of their church. We encourage the CHC leadership to continue in the spiritual upliftment of their members during this difficult period.

NCCS wishes to assure all fellow Singaporeans that while it appreciates the freedom of worship in our nation, it will also guide and advise members of the Christian community to constantly observe the law of the land.
