

Harmony Games 2018

Harmony Games 2018 held on Saturday, 4 August 2018 was organised by Singapore Buddhist Federation Youth, Bahá'í and Zoroastrian at Maha Bodhi School.

The Harmony Games 2018 brought together over 200 participants from various religious and community organisations. The theme is 'Regardless, We Are One' and youths had a good time challenging one another in games of Dodgeball, Nerf War, Archery Tag, Bubble Soccer and interactive games with the elderly. The guest of honour, Minister Grace Fu and the religious leaders also tried their hand at some games and everyone had a fun-filled time at the event.

NCCS was represented by Bishop Terry Kee, Rev Dr Ngoei Foong Nghian and Elder Richard Chong. Bishop Terry Kee, NCCS President, received the Harmony Games flag from Singapore Buddhist Federation as NCCS will be the host for Harmony Games 2019.
