

基督教长老会万民堂
The Peoples Presbyterian Church

English & Youth Ministry Worker

The Peoples Presbyterian Church (TPPC) is a Chinese-speaking, grassroots Church that believes in missions and community outreach. We are a vibrant community with members from Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Thailand and China. We are passionate about Missions and committed to bring the gospel to our communities and beyond the shores of Singapore.

We are prayerfully looking for English & Youth Ministry Worker to mentor our youths and serve in the English-speaking Service. The right candidate will work closely with the Pastor Overseer for planning, organizing and managing ministry activities and direction for both the English and Youth ministry.

Job responsibilities:

- Serve in the English-speaking Sunday services
- Provide pastoral care, leadership and nurturing through preaching, teaching and small groups
- Manage volunteers for various ministries (including worship teams, sound and projection, usher & hospitality and cell groups) and provide relevant resources and training for ministry
- Serve in Sunday Youth Program and the youth cell group
- Mentor youths and youth leaders
- Engage in evangelism outreach and discipleship towards growth of English and Youth ministries
- Any other duties as assigned by your Pastor Overseer.

Job requirements:

- At least 1-2 years of relevant ministry experiences
- Fluent in English and preferably some Chinese
- Have pastoral heart, good teamwork & interpersonal skills
- Good organizational and problem-solving skills

Other characteristics:

- Spiritually mature and ability to lead with strength and humility
- Proactive and positive
- Sensitive to people, teachable to leadership, and courageous in obeying God's leading
- Not afraid of challenges and be willing to go beyond the call of duty
- Excited about opportunities to grow the ministry

Salary will commensurate with experience and qualification.
